Modbury's junior teams compete in the state's elite junior football competition known as the Junior Premier League (JPL). Where the numbers permit, Modbury Soccer Club also fields teams in the Junior State League (JSL).

WHAT ARE OUR RULES?

All players registered with Modbury Soccer Club are required to sign a Club Code of Conduct form. In doing so, all players & parents agree to abide by the Code of Conduct policy which outlines the acceptable behaviour of players, parents, etc. and the need to respect FFSA officials, Club officials (including coaches), players/parents from your own team and those from opposing clubs.

Players are members of the Modbury Soccer Club first and foremost and while they will a member of a team, it is possible that they will be asked on occasion to play for a different team, for example to provide opportunities for development or to fill in temporarily in the event that a team is short of numbers.

The FFSA also has a "Spectator Code of Conduct" that parents must comply with. Any abusive or disruptive behaviour from a parent or spectator will see them asked to leave the grounds.
